

NEW ZEALAND MARCHING CHAMPIONSHIPS - UPDATE

25 February 2024

Opening Ceremony

Teams will assemble in their associations and then programme order (as per list below), if your team has a flag, please appoint one of your team members to carry this in front of the team.

Each Association is to appoint a flag bearer who will march together carrying their Association flag between the official flag bearers and the Waikato teams. All associations also need to nominate one banner bearer who will march in front of their association carrying a placard with their assn name on it.

These flag bearers will then assemble at the back of the field as directed by the Chief Marshall where the association teams will line up behind them.

Association flag bearers are to assemble at the field entry point at 3.00pm

Music

Could all music be forwarded to Bry Cassells, please be mindful and don't leave this to the last minute as Bry needs time to check that there is no problem with your music.
A number of teams have not sent their music.
